Hon. Harris Hart Addresses Govern- ment Classes

Recommends Plan For Adoption of State Text Books

Stressing the relation of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction to the State Board of Education, Hon. Harris Hart, Superintendent of Public Instruction of Virginia, addressed the students of Virginia Government and Citizenship, in the College Chapel, Thursday, February 15, 1923.

According to Mr. Harris, the State Superintendent is related to the State Board of Education in three ways. He is elected by the people, is Chairman of the Board, and his duties are fixed by the Board. Continuing, he asserted that the State Superintendent is in a position to make recommendations to the Board concerning the educational policies of Virginia, the adoption or refusal of these policies; and if adopted, to see that they are carried out in the proper manner.

Mr. Hart explained a recommendation made by him to the State Board of Education concerning the adoption of text books in reading and spelling for the purpose of testing them out in the public school system for a year before adoption. Then there will be no final selection of books made until they have been carefully examined and studied in the school system of the State.

Indianettes Defeat Sweet Briar; Fourth Straight Victory

Love and McCall Star for Locals

The women's basketball team hung up the usual victory Monday afternoon when the Indianettes defeated Sweet Briar by a 34 to 26 score. Sweet Briar put up a good fight, and led the Co-eds for a few minutes; but in the second half, the Indianettes struck their stride, and scored several baskets in rapid succession, putting the game "on ice," as their lead was never again endangered.

The passing of the William and Mary forwards was especially good, considering the fact that they were closely guarded all the time. Love scored her usual quota, caging ten baskets from the floor, and completing four foul shots. Margaret McCall wore a W. and M. jersey for the first time with credit to herself and to the team, shooting four field goals. The entire team played well, as the score testifies. Sweet Briar was returning home after playing Bryan Mawr, which is reputed as having one of

Indians Meet Spiders Here To- morrow Night

FINAL GAME OF SEASON

The final game of the Indian basketball card and the classic of the season takes place here tomorrow evening with the Spiders at 7:30 P. M. Although the present season has not been the most successful one of recent years, the students will feel more than compensated if the William and Mary five captures a victory from the fast going Spiders.

With Hobson and Hicks absent from the local line-up, Richmond University easily won from the Indians at Richmond. The Spiders have the edge when it comes to comparative scores, having lost to only three opponents, Bridgewater, Trinity and Virginia. The Spiders have scored victories over Lynchburg College, Randolph-Macon, Hampden-Sidney, University of Florida and others.

It is worth noting that the Indians have returned winners in five of the six contests played since the Richmond University defeat. The reappearance of Hobson and Hicks in the local line-up accounts, in large part, for William and Mary's reversal of form. With Hicks at running guard, Todd and Hobson at forward, Sexton at center, and Captain Young holding down the stationery guard, our ancient rivals will have all the opposition that they can possibly handle; and whatever the final result may be, the spectators are guaranteed their money's worth. The Spiders have not won a game on the local court since 1920, and William and Mary is very anxious to continue the record. The game will start promptly at 7:30 P. M.

Summer Session Plans

Indications Are That the Sum- mer Session of 1923 Will Be the Biggest in the His- tory of the College

In a few days the bulletin of the summer session of 1923 will be ready for distribution. From all available information the registration at the summer session will be as large, or larger than that of the regular academic year. It is time for any of those who are expecting to attend summer school to be thinking the matter over and determining the courses which they are going to take.

Dean Hoke, who will have charge of the summer session announces that in addition to the preliminary bulletin, the catalogue of the summer school is now obtainable. The summer session will be divided into two terms, each of six weeks duration. From six to eight college credits may be made at each term. This should prove a great convenience for those who just fall short of the degree requirements in June.

Lenoir Five Swamped By William and Mary

HICKS, HOBSON, TODD STAR

William and Mary swamped Lenoir College here Friday, taking the long end of the 45 to 19 score. During the first ten minutes of play, the Indians exhibited their poorest form of the season and trailed the North Carolinians, 7 to 4. At this juncture of the game, Coach Driver shifted Horace Hicks to running guard and substituted Hobson for Hicks at forward. The new combination worked like a steam roller against La Mott's five, and the end of the first half found the Indians enjoying a 19 to 10 lead.

The second period was a "walk away" for the local team, who held the ball more than four-fifths of the time. Horace Hicks led the Indians, scoring nine field goals and two foul goals. Hicks completed several long and difficult shots, one of which the little forward looped for two-thirds the distance of the floor. Hobson, who caged five field goals and five foul shots, and Todd with five field goals, were the next highest point makers for the winners.

The Line-up follows:

W. & M.	Position	Lenoir
Hicks	R. F.	Brown
Todd	L. F.	Boggs
Sexton	C.	Koontz
Pierce	R. G.	Hawn
Young	L. G.	Trickle

Summary: Foul Goals—Hicks, 9; Hobson, 5; Todd, 5; Hawn, 4; Koontz, Sechler, Boggs. Foul Goals—Hobson, 5; Hicks, 2; Boggs, 5. Substitutions: William and Mary—Hobson, Chandler. Lenoir College—Mitchell, Sechler. Referee—Wallace.

Baseball Practice Begins Monday

CANDIDATES WILL REPORT

Spring has come. This conclusion has been reached after hearing the announcement that baseball practice will begin on Cary Field Monday afternoon at 4 P. M. Coach Driver will be in charge, and a large number of candidates are expected. There are nine of last year's letter men who are eligible to play this year, and several prospects who are expected to make good. An excellent schedule has been arranged for this year's team, including games with Harvard, Holy Cross and Amherst.

Manager Faison is issuing a call for candidates for assistant manager. Those interested are asked to be on hand Monday afternoon to receive instructions and to assist in the work on the field.

Third Women's National Fra- ternity To Be Installed At William and Mary

The Upsilon Delta Beta local fraternity was merged last Friday afternoon into the Gamma Kappa Chapter of the Kappa Kappa Gamma Fraternity, the second oldest women's national fraternity bearing a Greek letter name, the first chapter being founded at Monmouth College in 1870. The local, which was organized September 20, 1919, by Mary Nash Tatem, Dorothy Zirkle, Blanche Kennedy and Dorothy Terrill, ceased to exist when it was formally absorbed into Kappa Kappa Gamma by Mrs. Theodore Westermann, national president, and Miss Rosalie Geer, editor of the fraternity magazine.

The sophomore, junior and senior members of the Upsilon Delta Beta local were installed Friday afternoon as charter members. Friday night many of the visiting Kappas attended the Co-ed Dance which added to the success of the installation. Saturday morning the freshmen and alumnae members were pledged, and were initiated Saturday afternoon.

After the initiation the members of the new Gamma Kappa Chapter and the visiting delegates repaired to a tea given in their honor by the members of the Delta Phi Kappa local fraternity at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Henderson. The Kappa colors, light and dark blue, were artistically carried out in the refreshments.

A delightful banquet was served in the College dining hall Saturday night at nine o'clock. The Kappa colors and the fraternity flower, fleur de lis, were extensively carried out in the decorations, favors and refreshments. Here the new chapter received greetings from the other chapters and from the national council.

A model fraternity meeting held Sunday afternoon marked the close of the ceremonies.

Kappa Kappa Gamma is the third woman's national fraternity to appear on the campus, being preceded by Chi Omega in 1921, and Kappa Alpha Theta in 1922.

The delegates attending the installation were: Mrs. Theodore Westermann, National President; Rosalie Geer, Editor of the "Key"; Beta Sigma (Adelphi College); Elizabeth Horne; Beta Alpha (University of Pennsylvania); Miriam McGhee, Thelma Harrison, Elizabeth Miller;

Men's Literary Societies Hold Joint Meeting

Time of Meeting Changed

The Literary societies will not at present consider turning over to the Colonial Echo to meet its deficit the surplus in the general fund of the societies at the end of the year, it was decided by the Phoenix and Philomathean Literary Societies meeting jointly last Friday night. They did, however, evince a willingness to consider the matter again nearer the end of the term.

A debate on the question, "Resolved, 'That France's position on the reparations question is morally justifiable,'" featured the program of the joint meeting.

The societies meet again tonight in their respective halls for the last time on Friday night, as, following the close of the basketball season, Saturday night will be the regular time for the meetings.

J. C. Phillips To Play Leading Male Role In "Only 38"

Director E. M. Gwathmey announces the selection of J. C. Phillips for the principal male role of "Only 38." "J. C." has, besides numerous appearances in minstrel and singing acts, played the leading part in every Dramatic Club production given since his matriculation at William and Mary. He is without doubt the best actor in the Dramatic Club ranks. As Clarence, in "Clarence," Phillips made possibly his biggest success. The Newport News papers referred to him as being one of the best amateurs appearing in that city.

All those who know "J. C." will agree that the part of the young college professor in "Only 38" is excellently suited to both his nature and talents.

NOTICE!

Professor O. L. Shewmake will deliver an oration in Phoenix Literary Society Hall, Friday, February 23, at 7 P. M.

There will be a debate: "Resolved: That the Constitution of the United States should be amended so as to permit the licensed sale of light wine and beer," in the Phoenix Hall, Friday, February 23, at 7 P. M.

German Club Gives Dance

The Co-ed Dance given last Friday night in the Jefferson Hall Gymn by the German Club was a great success, due to the peppy music by the Royal Garden Orchestra, the long line of "stags" and the valentine decorations which were carried out in the dance cards and refreshments.

Dr. Jacob Ill

Dr. Cary F. Jacob has been ill for several days. His illness has been the cause for quite a bit of concern among the students and faculty. Professor E. M. Gwathmey is meeting Dr. Jacob's classes for the present.

Chandler Heads Track Team For Second Time

Many Candidates Respond To Track Call

At a meeting of the track monogram men held Monday night, "Scrap" Chandler, of Petersburg, was elected Captain of this year's team to fill the vacancy caused by E. C. W. Dietz failing to return to College. This is the second time in three years that Chandler has headed the team.

Fifty candidates responded to the initial call issued by Coach Jones Monday. Among the letter men who were out were: "Scrap" Chandler, half and mile! Hancock, 440 and 220; Moore, javelin. Hicks and Young will both join the squad as soon as the basketball season ends.

Unprecedented attention will be given to track athletics at William and Mary this year under the direction of Coach Tucker Jones, of Richmond. An attractive schedule has been arranged, including meets with Penn State, V. M. I., Richmond University and Roanoke College.

Woodrow Wilson Wins From Scrubs

In a fast and well played game the Woodrow Wilson High School, of Portsmouth, scalped the Paposes last Friday night, the score being 36 to 12.

After Haskell had shot three foul goals, the Truckers, led by Gaskins, opened an attack that netted 10 baskets. When the smoke cleared after the first half, the score was 25 to 3.

The Scrubs came back in the second half, but they were against too strong a team. Gold caged two, followed by one sent through by Lash. Portsmouth was able to get only three in this period. Rose and Perry starred for the Truckers; for the Indians, Gold and Haskell were the shining lights.

Hampton Loses To Scrubs

Fine Work of Gold For Scrubs and Tennis For Hampton Chief Features of Game

The 28 to 24 victory of the Scrubs over Hampton High School was due to a great extent to the fine offensive work of Gold, former Hampton High School star, and the defensive work of Haskell, star guard for the Scrubs. Gold was high scorer for the Scrubs, making five field goals, three of which were long shots from the center of the floor, and one foul goal. Haskell came next, with eight foul goals.

For Hampton Tennis was the outstanding star, having fourteen points to his credit, consisting of three field goals and eight foul goals. Tennis was the high scorer of the game, making three more points than Gold.

HERE AND THERE

With the track men out since Tuesday and the baseball men called for Monday, the out-of-door sports are claiming their own. The sight of the cinder path and bats and balls awaken interest in every sport lover whether he participates in the contest or not. William and Mary has in this year's track and baseball schedule, the most ambitious program the local management has yet undertaken. The Indians have twenty games on their baseball card, including engagements with Harvard, Navy, Amherst, New York University and Penn State. The track team will face some of the best runners in America when they hold their meet with Penn State here in the spring.

WHAT ABOUT THE SPIDERS?

It is to be sincerely hoped that the students will refrain from "razzing" the visiting players tomorrow night or showing in any way that prep school rivalry which has so often been evident at a contest between the two institutions. Respectful rivalry is a wholesome thing for both schools, but the feeling of hatred which seems to have found its way into this athletic rivalry must be eliminated if the schools are to profit. There is no excuse for the existence of this hatred, and the quicker it is done away with, the better for everybody concerned. Strange as it may seem to some of us who have been reared in this hatred, University of Richmond was first to propose that an attempt be made to foster better relations between the two neighboring institutions.

* * * * *

If the big team continues the form it has been showing during the past two weeks, we can promise the Spiders all the action they want. Hobson and Hicks proved too much for the Richmond boys last year, and we see no reason why they can't repeat tomorrow night.

* * * * *

The Indianettes, by defeating Sweet Briar, moves almost within reaching distance of State honors. Hollins and Randolph-Macon alone stand in the way, and we do not know but that our record should give us first place in the event that no eliminating contests adjust the issue.

* * * * *

Quite remarkably enough, one State daily at least came forward to champion Bill Ingram's cause. Since the News Leader failed to treat the matter in the light of the publicly known facts, we will not discuss its assertions here.

APPLICATIONS OF SEVERAL COACHING PROSPECTS IN HANDS OF JOINT COMMITTEES

The Joint-Athletic Committee is in communication with several good football coaches, according to Chairman O. L. Shewmake, who says that the students can be assured of getting a coach capable of handling our 1923 schedule. An announcement will be made public as soon as the new coach is signed.

FEBRUARY 23, 1923

FEBRUARY 22

On February 22, the people of the Great Republic of ours celebrated the birthday of the founder of the nation. They celebrated the anniversary of a man "first in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen." How many and how varied are the thoughts which fill our minds when we mention the name of the immortal Washington. Long will we cherish his name in our fondest memories, and long will we remember him as a man who so lived that he did not miss the world when he departed, but the world greatly missed him.

In our imagination we picture Washington as the founder of our nation, as a great statesman standing before a large audience delivering his farewell address, famous the world over as a masterpiece, celebrated for its thought and rhetoric, as the first and one of the greatest Presidents of the United States, as the one aiding in formulating the destinies of this nation, and as a giver of precepts upon precepts for governing the nation. In short, as one upon whom the whole nation unites in the lavishing of praises. His monument is the nation, his grave is the heart of the American people. Proud are we to call him one of the "Great Americans."

Well can we compare him to Lincoln, who set free a race in bondage and who swayed the course of the great nation founded by the immortal Washington; well can we compare him to Lincoln, who saved the sun-kissed Southland from the ravages of reconstruction, who preserved the whole nation in the darkest days of its existence, after it had been successfully piloted through the days of '76 by the leader of men whose birthday we have just celebrated. Closely are the two great Americans linked together, and how zealous are we to call them as men who lived and still live in the hearts of their countrymen.

FRATERNITIES AT WILLIAM AND MARY

The College of William and Mary is very fortunate in having on its campus the leading men and women's fraternities of the country. Within the last year three of the largest fraternities in existence have been established at the College.

Last week one of the largest women's fraternities, Kappa Kappa Gamma, installed a chapter here. The women students are to be congratulated for having successfully brought three of the largest national women's fraternities on the campus. It is a great distinction for the College to have three national fraternities for women to offer the Co-eds.

The College now has ten national social fraternities, six national honorary fraternities, and three local social fraternities.

PROPER RIVALRY BETWEEN RICHMOND AND WILLIAM AND MARY

Coach Frank Dobson, of Richmond University, through the Omricon Delta Kappa Society, of which he is a member, is corresponding with this Society here, in striving to promote a better spirit of rivalry between the Society here, in striving to promote a better spirit of rivalry between the two institutions should be allayed and a more proper and a more wholesome spirit of rivalry should be substituted. Greatly is such substitution desired, since the rivalry, as expressed by Coach Dobson, is the most intense rivalry which has ever existed between two schools. A proper rivalry is a promoter of better athletics and a fosterer and a preserver of better sportsmanship in athletic relations between the two institutions; yet, the rivalry must not give way to odious hatred, but it must consist of a proper spirit between the University of Richmond and the College of William and Mary.

The time for showing proper respect to visiting teams from Richmond will come tomorrow night when the Indians meet the Spiders in the closing game of the season. Courtesy to the visiting team and loyalty to our Indian cagers should be the watchword.

CO-ED BASKETBALL TEAM WINS FOUR GAMES

The Co-ed basketball team, with the victory over Sweet Briar last Monday, has a record of winning four games in succession, having won from George Washington University, Swarthmore College, Westhampton and Sweet Briar. Never before in the history of co-education at William and Mary have the Co-eds presented such a winning team. No doubt the State championship laurels should be the crowning wreaths of this season's schedule of the William and Mary Co-ed basketball team. Let us hope that the championship games will be arranged in order that the State championship for women's basketball may be determined.

Coach Thelma Brown should be congratulated on having perfected this winning sextet. The College is to be justly proud of her Co-ed basketball team.

TAKING BOOKS FROM LIBRARY

Many of the students have been negligently guilty of taking books from the library and retaining them beyond the period of time allowed to students for keeping the books, which is two weeks. In keeping these books out of the library longer than the allotted time, other students are denied the use of these books, aside from the danger of losing the books or of getting them misplaced. More library courtesy is expected from the students of the College of William and Mary.

SENATOR MAPP ANNOUNCES HIS CANDIDACY FOR GUBERNATORIAL NOMINATION IN PRIMARY OF 1925

Senator Walter G. Mapp, an alumnus of this College, has recently announced himself as a candidate for the gubernatorial nomination in the primary of 1925. Senator Mapp is one of our most enthusiastic and active alumni, having aided in getting many appropriations for the College.

Since his graduation from William and Mary, he has become an eminent lawyer, a member of the General Assembly, the author of the State prohibition law and of many educational measures of our State. He distinguished himself in the General Assembly as an adroit and fearless statesman. His political career has been an enviable one.

Louisiana State College has a very unique contest every year during the winter term. It is an oratorical contest, given under the auspices of the English Department which is open to Freshmen only. Professor Carson, who offers the medal, says he can see no reason why a man should be in college two or three years before he attempts to speak on the floor.

Amherst College, Mass., claims the Athletic Championship of the United States on the fact that four hundred of her five hundred and twenty students are training as athletes. This is a score of ninety per cent. "Doc" Hitchcock, director of athletics at Amherst, with a slogan of "Sports for every man," was responsible for this large number of students taking part in athletic events at the Massachusetts institution.

Paul R. Merriman, associate professor of botany at the University of Richmond, is making a complete catalogue of all wild plant life in Middle Virginia, and has collected more than a thousand specimens which comprise about 600 species of the higher plant life. This is the first attempt ever made to completely classify and catalogue plants in this region of the State.

A Court of Control is to be established at Davidson College in place of the old vigilance committee. If hazing is abolished, this court will take a much more effective control over the Freshmen than the Sophs or any individuals ever could. Every Freshman that appears before the court will be given a fair hearing before it, and before the trial is over he will realize that the court means business. Afterwards there is no doubt that he will be improved a great deal more than if he had been hazed.

SUMMER SCHOOL PLANS

The students who attend the summer school may be roughly divided into three classes, teachers, business men and women, and college students who are taking advantage of the summer months to shorten their college course. In planning the summer session, provision has been made for each of these three classes. Special courses for primary, grammar, and high school teachers have been planned for the summer session, in addition to the regular courses leading to collegiate degrees. Those in charge of the School of Business Administration are planning courses of distinct value to business men and women who wish to spend a six weeks' vacation in profitable study. In addition to these, the regular courses in Latin, English, Modern Languages, Sciences, Mathematics, Greek, Psychology, Philosophy, History, Economics, Government, and Business Administration will be offered.

ENTERTAINMENT

An interesting series of social events will be arranged. Motion pictures of high grade will be shown in the Palace Theatre. Outdoor sports—tennis, baseball, basketball, on the College courts and athletic field, games and fetes on the campus will be provided. Opportunity for dramatics and choral activities are afforded for those who are interested. During the summer quarters of 1921 and 1922 historical pageants based on local history, were presented with marked success. Another pageant of similar nature will be presented this summer.

Room Reservation Should be Made as Early as Possible. Send early registration fee of $3.00 and room will be reserved. Address all inquiries to

INDIAN SPASMS

TEACHING LATIN

By Henri Fortesquire

Teach you Latin? Yes, my dear;
Sit and con your lesson here.
What did Adam say to Eve?
Amo te, I must believe.

Sound the e as e in they;
A as a in arm, I pray.
Antony said to Egypt fair,
"Amo te." Sweet maid, beware!

That is good, you speak it well;
Let me hold your hand and tell
What great Caesar said one day,
"Veni, vidi—amo te!"

Caesar, too, loved Egypt's queen—
Theda Bara shows her keen—
Mighty Julius had to say,
"Amo, Cleopatra, te!"

Let my arm entwine your waist:
Latin is not learned in haste,
And when you are close to me,
Amo te sounds sweeter—see?

Should you sound a letter wrong,
I shall show you just how strong
Is that waist-entwining arm:
Amo te removes all harm!

You have learned enough today;
For tomorrow, let me say
We shall study more about
Amo te, please have no doubt!

Should you fail your task to do,
I shall have to punish you:
For each word you hap to miss,
Amo te demands a kiss!

Pretty pupil, keep this rule,
Never tell tales out of school:
If asked what you're learning, say,
"Applied Classic Charity!"

AT THE DANCE

Soph: "What orchestra is this?"
Duc: "Stieff's."

Soph: "Oh, no."

Duc (insistent): "Yes 'tis, don't you see it on the piano?"

Rangeley: "Say, Ashby, what are you doing with so many books?"
Ashby: "I'm carrying law."

Pictures At Palace Theatre This Week

4:00, 7:30 and 9:00 O'clock

MONDAY

"Handcuffs or Kisses" is the title of the recent production of Elaine Hammerstein, the Selznick star, which features the Palace program for Monday. This picture surpasses even the previous triumphs of "The Star Without a Failure." Fox News will also be seen.

TUESDAY

For Tuesday, "The Ghost Breaker," one of the best pictures of Wallace Reid, the recently deceased star, is offered. Walter Hiers assumes a black-face role, as "Rusty Brown," and Lila Lee that of the princess. A Snub Pollard Comedy is included on the program.

WEDNESDAY

"Tis a a breath of the aud sod yez will get," when you see "My Wild Irish Rose," the picture to be presented at the Palace on Wednesday. A comedy, "The Blanket Striff," will begin the program.

THURSDAY and FRIDAY

"The Old Homestead," the feature picture for Thursday and Friday, includes in its superb cast such stars as Theodore Roberts, as "Uncle Josh," George Fawcett, T. Roy Barnes, Harrison Ford and Fritz Ridgway. It tells a story of the sorrows and joys of plain folks and a great love that weathered adversity.

SATURDAY

Gladys Walton, the Universal Star, will be seen Saturday in "The Lavender Bath Lady," a sparkling story of a romantic shop girl whose vivacious disposition led her into startling adventures and brought her the love, silks and jewels she craved. A comedy is also included on the program as an added attraction.
